Education tax.

The taxation proposal of the Coonhapur Taluk Board may be approved with the concurrence of Rev: and Finance. Sufficient data are not available to estimate what the probable receipts will be from the proposed tax. The income ~~from local rates~~ of this taluk board for 1919-20 from local rates is recorded as Rs 51,360. But recently the second taluk board has been split up into three local fund taluks of Udipi, Coonhapur and Karkal. So, for the present taluk board area of Coonhapur, we may approximately assume that about $\frac{1}{3}$ of Rs 51,360 will represent the land cess and $\frac{1}{6}$ (x) of this latter or about Rs 2,850 will be the probable income under the Edn tax. Under Sec. 37 the Govt will also have to contribute a like sum.

G.O. 84 d. 28.1.20

x17,120 = 2853

(x) Land cess in S. Kanara is levied at 1½ as in the Rs: of rental Value.

Local (Edn) Deptt.

A draft order is submitted.

2 It has since been ascertained from the L.S. Deptt. that the sum of Rs 51,360 referred to in the office note at page 1 ante is the Taluk Board's share of the land cess raised in the area. An equal share of the land cess is also debited to Dept: Board Revenues, the Education tax is leviable in respect of that also. So the income from the Education tax and the Govt: contribution under Section 37 of the Act noted on p.1 ante will have to be doubled and this will give the figure Rs 5,700 roughly.

3 The procedure in regard to the assessment and realisation of the education tax has been laid down in the rules framed under Section 36 of the Act. These rules along with the other rules under the Act had been published for criticisms. The rules will be shortly confirmed.
